Saturday Monitor
www.monitor.co.ug

Namilyango, Namagunga, Ntare top S.6 exams

BY LILIAN NAMAGEMBE
lnamagembe@ug.nationmdia.com

KAMPALA. Prominent schools have retained their top positions in the Uganda Advanced Certificate of Education results (UACE).

According to the results released by the Uganda National Examinations Board (Uneb) yesterday, St Mary's Kitende retained its first position, Namilyango College and Uganda Martyrs SS Namugongo tied in second place while Ntare School and Mt St Mary's College Namagunga tied in third. Seeta High School, Mukono and Kings College Budo followed.

An analysis done by this newspaper indicates that St Mary's Kitende had 78 per cent of its candidates scoring above 15.6 points. Namilyango College and Uganda Martyrs SS Namugongo tied in second position with 71 per cent of their candidates having scored an average of 14.2 points.

Ntare School and Mt St Mary's College Namagunga followed in the third position with 70 per cent of their 14 points, Seeta High School, Mukono and Kings College Budo are in fourth position with 69 per cent of their candidates scoring 13.8 per cent and above.

In 2014, St Mary's College, Kisubi and Mt St Mary's College Namagunga, Lugazi topped the list of the best performers.

While schools such as Buddo Senior Secondary School ,Trinity College, Nabbingo and Makerere College scooped top positions in 2014, they have not surfaced anywhere in the best 10 in the previous year.

Scanned with CamScanner