

Teenager needs help for sick baby

BY GLADYS KALIBBALA

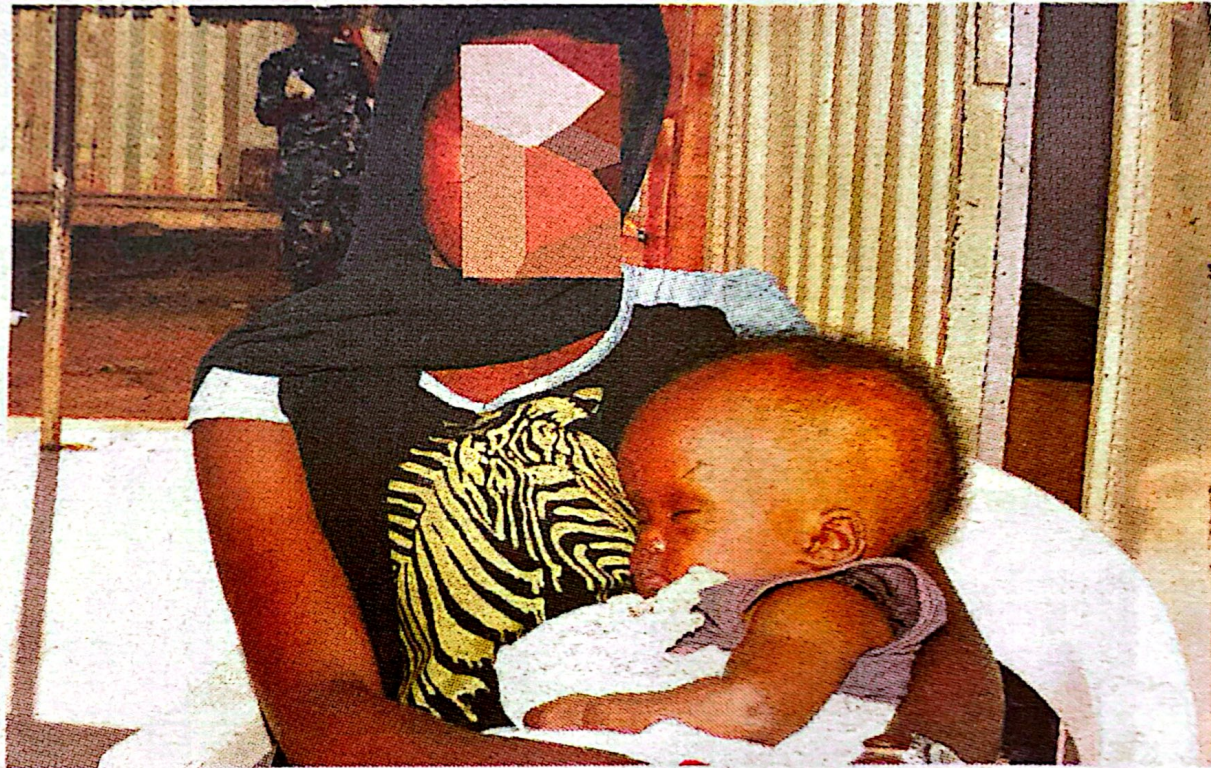

Shakira Nassiwa, 17, was in S2 in Luwero town when she came on a tour in Kampala and met Arnold Luswata, who claimed to be a musician.

Nassiwa got pregnant and Luswata invited her to join him in Kampala without informing her grandmother, Deborah Nabukalu of Kayonza village in Luwero district, who had raised her. Because he is married, Luswata rented a single room for Nassiwa in Katwe, where she stayed alone until she gave birth to a baby girl on July 20.

The baby turned out to be suffering from hydrocephalus and Luswata abandoned them.

Nassiwa now needs help for the baby's operation at Cure Children's Hospital in Mbale.

To assist her, call 0703549923.
