

Coffee growers urged on quality

BY ALEX TUMUHIMBISE

Coffee farmers in Kagadi District have been urged to plant improved coffee seedlings in order to gain more and increase their household income.

The call was made by Dr Pascal Musoli a coffee breeder from Naro.

Musoli said, "improved seedlings are resistant against wilt diseases which have been a major challenge to coffee production in Uganda."

