BUDAKA

Health advocates get bicycles

Advocacy for Better Health, a US Agency for international development, has donated 175 bicycles to advocacy champions in Budaka District. According to the project officials, the initiative is aimed at easing the accessibility, mobilisation and community outreaches in the area. During the handover ceremony, Mr Wilberforce Makeri, the project manager, said: "The bicycles will aid the beneficiaries to carry out health facility tracking and assessment in health service delivery."

[Mudangha Kolyangha]