

Musiime will pursue engineering

By Daniel Beingana

In Kyenjojo district bright minds are emerging with dreams rooted in science and innovation. Innocent Musiime, a former student of St Adolf High School excelled in physics, chemistry, mathematics and information and communication technology, scoring an impressive 19 points.

Musiime

Musiime, who is aspiring to become a civil engineer attributes his success to the unwavering

Simeo Agondeze of St Adolf High School scored 16 points MEA support of his teachers and parents.

Shafiq Mukwaya of Premier City High School, 16 points, BCM/ICT