National Martyrs Choral Festival set for June 2

BY MATHIAS MAZINGA

June 2, 2026, is D-day for the annual National Martyrs Choral Festival organised by Vision Group. The event will be broadcast live on all Vision Group television stations, including Bukedde TV, Wan Luo and TV West.

According to the event's co-ordinator, Max Adii, registration of the participating choirs is complete and the judges are doing the selections.

"We got 30 choirs that expressed interest in participating; they sent in their videos. The judges are currently busy examining and critiquing the musical videos. They will first pick out 14 choirs, from which they will again select the ultimate best six that will participate in the finals, which will be held at Vision Group head office in Kampala, on Tuesday, June 2, starting at 2:00pm," Adii said.

He said the event will be held virtually due to public health concerns.

"As you are aware, the threat of Ebola caused the postponement of the celebrations of Uganda Martyrs Day at Namugongo [set for June 3]. So, we are obliged to strictly observe the standard operating procedures and other guidelines issued by the Government. Our people will be able to follow the function because it will be broadcast live on all our television channels and other electronic/digital platforms," Adii said.

He said the choirs in participation are from the Catholic Church and the Church of Uganda, and also from all over Uganda, which makes the festival national and ecumenical.

Adii said the main purpose of the festival is to help local choirs and all Christians celebrate the Uganda Martyrs through music.

"As our choirs will be serenading, we shall be enjoying the music, but also reflecting deeply on the lives and heroic deeds of the Uganda Martyrs," he said.

Adii paid tribute to the partners, who include Pepsi Uganda Christian University and Equity Bank, for supporting the project.
