

UPE needs united effort to thrive

EDITOR: UPE, like a child in a home needs effort of all family members' intervention to grow. I note with heart felt concern when other stakeholders don't care about the survival of UPE, but are there to blame. I think we need to get down on the drawing board and ask. What the problem is and find a solution. Otherwise not all teachers are negligent others are really there to support the cause.

Sylvia Wokuri,

Namakwekwe Primary School