MP suspected killer arrested

BY BRIAN MUGENYI
editorial@ug.nationmedia.com

PALLISA. A key suspect in the murder of former Bukomansimbi District Woman MP Susan Namaganda was last week arrested in Kalangala Islands.

According to Southern Region police spokesperson Ibin Ssenkumbi, the suspect was arrested while hiding in Namisoge Islands, Kande village in Kalangala District, following a tip-off from a reserve force soldier, Mr Herbert Gayira.

"He has been arrested and he is yet to tell us whether he was part of the group that connived to kill the MP," Mr Ssenkumbi told journalists at Masaka Central Police Station on Tuesday. Ms Namaganda ,who was seeking re-election after serving her first term in Parliament, died last December after getting involved in an accident on Masaka-Kampala highway. She was traveling from Bukomansimbi to Kampala to attend a parliamentary session. She was earlier taken to Double Cure Clinic in Mpigi Town for first medication, but later died at Nakasero Hospital in Kampala.

Scanned with CamScanner