BUIKWE. The incumbent Buikwe District LC5 chairperson, Mr Mathias Kigongo, has retained his seat.

Mr Kigongo, the NRM flag bearer, was declared winner after bagging 25,684 votes, followed by Ms Immaculate Kabaale, an Independent, who got 23,429 votes.

Ms Kabaale lost in the NRM primaries and decided to stand as an Independent candidate.

Democratic Party's candidate Deogratiou Kijjambu came last with 8,374 votes.

In Buvuma District, another NRM candidate, Mr Alex Mabirizi, carried the day after polling 11,830 votes while his only rival, Mr Denis Luyima, an Independent, got 2,375 votes.

Both losers in the two districts attributed their loss to low voter turnout, saying most of their supporters who are from the Opposition shunned the exercise.

"Most of my voters did not take part in the exercise after they were disappointed with the previous elections," Mr Kijjambu said.
