Teachers' Sacco robbed, manhunt launched

Police in Luweero District on Friday launched a manhunt for suspects who accessed the Luweero Teachers SACCO of taking away computers and unspecified amount of money, just two months after the same Sacco had its computers stolen by yet unidentified people. Luweero acting police commander, Ms Rebecca Ayeta, said : "The police are in investigating the case of robbery at the teachers Sacco offices. We have also advised the management to change the security personnel because in both robberies, the security guarding the premises disappeared," Ms Ayeta said. [Dan Wandera]
