CHRIST THE KING CHOIR TO HOLD CHRISTMAS CONCERTS

BY MATHIAS MAZINGA

The affiliate choirs of Christ the King Church, Kampala, have started to throw concerts for their fans in preparation for Christmas.

The first Christmas Carols will be a concert by the Franciscan Choir, with its band, which will take place at Theatre La Bonita on Friday December 8. They will perform together with the Afri-Vocals of Nairobi. The show starts at 6pm.

Christ the King Church Choir, will also stage a Christmas concert at the Sheraton Hotel Rwenzori Ballroom on December 10, starting at 7:00pm. The repertoire of the classical music oriented choristers will include J S Bach's Christmas Oratorio and other assorted carols. Christ the King Church Choir will perform alongside Soul Orchestra Africa (comprising the musical accompanists of Namirembe Cathedral). Paul Luggya, a former organist at England's Lichfield Cathedral will accompany the choir, which will be directed by
