Joint security operatives have now carried out back-to-back operations linked to outgoing Parliament Speaker Anita Among at two separate residences in Kampala City and Wakiso District.

The first operation unfolded on Saturday at Ms Among's residence in Nakasero, an upscale suburb in central Kampala. A heavy joint security deployment sealed off sections around the residence as investigators conducted a search operation that lasted more than eight hours.

Witnesses reported seeing multiple security vehicles, plain-clothed operatives, and armed personnel entering and exiting the compound throughout the day and late into the night.

During the operation, access to the residence remained tightly controlled, with only a few individuals seen moving in or out of the compound. By Sunday morning, most operatives had withdrawn, although a smaller VVIP security presence remained stationed near the main gate.

Authorities have not formally disclosed the exact nature of the investigation, but the operation is understood to be part of a President Museveni-sanctioned probe reportedly linked to alleged corruption and unexplained enrichment claims.

Ms Among did not publicly comment during or after the search operation, while her usually active social media platforms and those of close aides remained largely silent.

Yesterday, the focus shifted to another expansive residence linked to Ms Among in Kigo, just off the Entebbe Expressway near Entebbe International Airport.

More than 50 security operatives (including elite forces) were deployed around the property, with police patrol vehicles stationed outside the compound as investigators continued searches inside.

New footage emerging from the scene showed, for the first time, Ms Among's husband, Mr Moses Magogo, taking investigators around parts of the residence believed to belong to the outgoing House Speaker.

Videos from the scene revealed the scale of the facility, including multiple access gates positioned more than 100 metres apart, balconies overlooking sections of the compound, and what appeared to be a large underground parking area beneath part of the residence. Sources estimate that the residence sits on more than 3 acres of land.

Other sections believed to be inside the facility reportedly include basement areas, a gym, sauna, and cinema hall, while another upper-level section was described by sources as a restricted-access area.

Footage also captured detectives and other security operatives moving between different sections of the property as the operation continued into the day.

As of Sunday evening, authorities had yet to release an official statement detailing what, if anything, had been recovered during the searches or whether any charges were imminent.
